Ramon Narayan – Action Education

A youth development worker and educator from New Zealand who has worked with young people for the last 14 years in many different capacities.

He participated in “Ship for World Youth” New Zealand, and has taken part as both a participant and leader in various international youth exchange programs across the globe including Japan and other countries. He is currently the manager of Action Education Inc., a non profit youth organization. He is also a co-founder of the South Auckland Poets Collective and travelled with his team to San Francisco in 2012 to take part in Brave Voices – the world’s biggest youth poetry slam. www.actioneducation.co.nz - www.sapcnz.com

The Real Sun (Sun Mi Park) – Lost Lyrics

The Real Sun is an artist, entrepreneur, educator, community builder, and healer-in-training from Canada. She is currently the Interim Director at Lost Lyrics, which is a mobile and innovative learning incubator that empowers young people to create a bridge of knowledge between the streets and the classroom in Toronto. She is also the creator and CEO of The Real Sun enterprises, which provides various services and products based in four pillars: Art, Education, Healing, and Social Justice. For the past 7 years she has been instrumental in the founding, direction, and management for several arts-based, education, social justice organizations. She released her first album titled “Rise” in 2008, and more recently she released “Horizon” in 2014. She has performed on stages across Canada, USA, Korea, Japan, Singapore and Peru. www.LostLyrics.ca - www.TheRealSun.com

“The Egyptian Alumni Association for the Ship for World Youth (EASWY)”

The Egyptian Alumni Association for the Ship for World Youth known as EASWY was established in 1996. Members are Egyptian volunteers who participated in the Ship for World Youth Program (SWY) operated by Cabinet Office, Government of Japan. They are the graduates of SWY Program (EX - Participant Youth).

While on board and when visiting the different countries, PYs (Participant Youth) had the opportunity during the SWY Program to study and discuss common issues from a global perspective and participate in various activities involving multicultural and multinational exchange opportunities.
